Cooking with Sara

Sara Cox is a classically trained chef from the Institute of Culinary Education with a background in nutrition and education. Sara has worked for non-profit organizations for years and has delivered countless recipe demonstrations that emphasize the importance of nutrition. Sara teaches food safety through ServSafe, a nationally recognized food safety certification program. Some of Sara's specialties include Caribbean American food! Come join Sara on Monday nights for different themed cooking classes. The class will consist of all students prepping/cooking one part of the meal, with a Family Style meal at the end.

When:

5/6 – Spanish and Caribbean Tapas
5/13 – A Taste of Italy
5/20 – Southern Comfort
6/3 – Oktober Fest (in June)
6/10 – Weekend Brunch
6/17 – Keto and Whole Friendly Meals

Where:

Room 220 in George F. Baker High School

Time: 6:00 – 8:30 PM

Cost: $30 per class
(Maximum 10 students per class)

Tuxedo residents must pre-register 1 week prior to class and can cancel 3 days prior to class by calling 845-351-4786 x2101. Payment must be received 3 days prior to class.

Handbuilding with Clay

If you are dying to sink your fingers into wet clay, then join us! This is a wonderful opportunity to work with an artist on your creative ideas. Learn a variety of techniques from pinching, coiling, slab construction and carving. Also learn basic skills such as wedging and how to use a variety of tools. Create objects to use at home: coffee cups, flower pots & more!
