CRITERIA

for the

Charlie Reichle Memorial Scholarship

The Charlie Reichle Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established to honor the memory of Charlie Reichle, owner of Fred Reichle Diesel, who passed away unexpectedly on January 6, 2018. Of the many things important to Charlie, such as working hard to provide for his family and always living life to the fullest, he also found a great amount of gratification in serving and giving back to his community. One of his greatest joys in life was watching kids play on the infamous “Field of Dreams,” a baseball field that he built directly across from his home. He was a man of great enthusiasm, positivity and always with warm, welcoming arms. This scholarship will be given to a baseball student who exemplifies similar characteristics and in hopes that his legacy impacts the lives of many.

Grants may be recommended by the donor to award scholarships at any high school in Orange County or Liberty Central School District.
